Dear Daddy: Jan. 11, 1942

I am still fine and dandy, and don't know if and when we will move out of here. I'm thinking seriously of transferring to the Air Corps to do office work. I don't to fly. I tried to get in Tuscaloosa, but they had no openings. What do you think of it. I like the idea. Maybe I can get to Montgomery. Write soon. I wrote to Bill Bloom about it.

Love,

Harold
